

STUN

STUN N° 006 | THE SPECTACULAR ISSUE

Roll up! Roll up!

STUN N° 006 celebrates the return of glamour to the Kings Cross/Darlinghurst area with the opening of the Emerald Room, a wild new cabaret lead by gender queer performance artist, Brendan de la Hay.

We'll talk to ACT Liberal Party leader Elizabeth Lee to hear about the party's commitment to the LGBTIQA+ community should they win power at the territory election in October.

New writer Andreas will delve into men's sacred sexuality, we'll take a tour of the new Qtopia museum, unearth new Australian queer music, talk to Art Simone about her first book, dissect the latest issues affecting queer people here and around the world, and much much more.

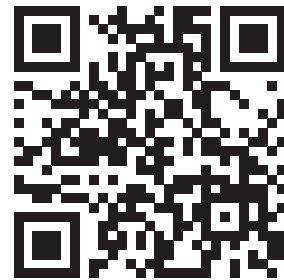

STUN is distributed at high-quality locations where queer people gather throughout Canberra, Sydney, Wollongong and Newcastle. Don't miss this chance to be a star - book your ad now!

Booking deadline ..... Friday 21 June
Artwork deadline ..... Monday 24 June
Publication date ..... Friday 5 July

For further details, contact:
Danny Corvini
hello@stunmagazine.com.au
0417 322 038

Issue No. 005, 2024

View the magazine online using the QR code or go to stunmagazine.com.au